LITURGY CORNER

Arrangement of the Sanctuary (Part 3)

The chair for the Priest Celebrant and Other Seats

The chair of the priest celebrant must signify his office of presiding over the gathering and of directing the prayer. Thus, the best place for the chair is in a position facing the people at the head of the sanctuary, unless the design of the building or other circumstances impede this: for example, if the great distance would interfere with communication between the priest and the gathered assembly, or if the tabernacle is in the center behind the altar. Likewise, seats should be arranged in the sanctuary for concelebrating priests as well as for priests who are present for the celebration in choir dress but who are not concelebrating. The seat for the deacon should be placed near that of the celebrant. Seats for the other ministers are to be arranged so that they are clearly distinguishable from those for the clergy and so that the ministers are easily able to fulfill the function entrusted to them.

The LORD lifts up all who are falling,
And raises up all who are bowed down.

CENTERING PRAYER—the prayer of silence

Meditation is an inner journey of silence, stillness, and simplicity. This practice has been part of our Christian tradition since the time of the Desert Fathers. Each Wednesday evening we have the opportunity to practice this prayer together. If Spirit calls, do not hesitate to come...7-8:30pm, at the St. Bartholomew Youth Center, 4545 E. Fourth Street (between Park and Ximeno). For more information, call: Pat (562)243-8460. Save Sunday afternoon, Dec. 9th, for "A Day of Spiritual Enrichment" with Fr. Carl Arico, in our Parish Hall. Fr. Carl is a humorous, engaging speaker with profound insights into the heart of silence, God's most intimate language. For more information, call: Barb (562)433-7901.

DISCIPLESHIP

All of us, especially young adults, live with one foot in the secular world and the other in the Church, always with the question: "How do I live out my discipleship of Jesus in this world?" And, with life's demands making time so precious, how and where do I find the time or place to discover that answer? Throughout the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, two parishes in each region will be sponsoring a night of spiritual development for young single adults, men and women, 18 years of age or more. This once-a-month evening, using prayer, presentation, and discussion, hopes to lead single adults to answer that crucial question: "How am I a disciple of Jesus Christ? And where do I, as a disciple, fit into the Catholic Church?"

These committees also inform all parish personnel, committees, ministries and volunteers of the available resources for educating their constituencies on all aspects of child and youth abuse and neglect. For more information, call the parish office or the Archdiocese's Safeguard the Children Program Office (213)637-7227. For particular help you may call Assistance Ministry at (213)637-7650.
