REVISITING OUR BAPTISM

A mere seven weeks ago thousands of new Church members were baptized. Their new life in Christ has once again infused new life into the Church. Their new-found faith has inspired and bolstered the faith of those who have followed Christ for many years. As the Easter season nears its end, we revisit the scene of our baptisms. In the second reading we hear Christ calling us: "Come. ... Let ... the one who wants it receive the gift of life-giving water" (Revelation 22:17). But our baptism is not one of water only. John refers to washed robes, and we know that this washing is to be "in the blood of the Lamb." To make sure we get this message, we have today's first reading from Acts. It is the story of Stephen, the first Christian to be killed for his faith in Jesus. We remember the promise and also the cost of being a disciple of Christ.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES

Tutors are needed for their tutoring program every Thursday between 4-6:00pm, at the Elizabeth Ann Seton Residence. This family shelter is a unique program in Long Beach and demonstrates the community's concern for providing temporary housing for families in crisis. It is imperative that our children receive adequate tutoring during these difficult times. For more information, please contact: Vicki Calhoun (562)305-7677 or vickycalhoun@gmail.com
