THE TRINITY IS LOVE

Theologians throughout the Christian centuries have spilled much ink (and, on occasion, some blood) in describing and defining the mystery of the Holy Trinity. One of the earliest, most poetic, and beautiful descriptions comes from St. Augustine in De Trinitas, wherein he describes the Trinity as One (the Father) who loves, One (the Son) who is loved, and One (the Spirit) who is love. And these three Ones are also one Three.

It might be wisest for us to leave the technical wranglings to the academic theologians, and focus on the fact that the three Persons of the Trinity are indeed persons; they are best known and understood in their love for each other and for us. We are made in the image of those loving persons, and our best relationships are lived out in the context of love. Truly loving relationships are inexhaustible mysteries to be lived in joy. If this is true of our human relationships, how much more so is it true of our relationship with the Trinity. And how much more does it call upon us to be joyful, loving witnesses of the holy mystery of the One-in-Three. This is the mystery to which we were called when we were chosen to be God's own, baptized with water in the name of the Holy Trinity.

The Most Holy Trinity June 11, 2006

Go...and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

- Matthew 28:19

"INQUIRY" is the first step in the process of faith formation and education known as the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA). RCIA is a four-step process for individuals who are not baptized; those who were baptized in other Christian traditions; or baptized Catholics who haven't received the Sacraments of Eucharist and/or Confirmation. A new RCIA program will begin this fall and full sacramental initiation will be celebrated at the Easter Vigil next spring. Inquiry classes are held the second Wednesday of the month in the Jubilee Room from 8-9pm. Interested individuals are invited to "come and see" what living a life as a committed Catholic Christian can mean. For more information, please call: Earl Lovett (562)439-3198. As a Catholic community, it is our greatest joy, as well as our mission, to continually welcome new members.

SPONSOR FORMATION

The ministry of the sponsor in the initiation process for the RCIA assists in bringing people to know Jesus through the Church. If you are a good listener, warm, open, friendly, and nonjudgmental, you possess the basic qualities needed to become a sponsor. A sponsor training seminar will be held later this summer. We encourage you to join our team.

RCIA CATECHISTS

Are you someone who looks for connections between God's action and human life? Are you willing to grow in your own knowledge and understanding of Catholic teachings? These are essential qualities for a catechist (teacher of religious education and a minister of the Word). The RCIA is assembling its catechetical team for this fall. A short training program is scheduled for late summer for adult RCIA catechists. For more information, please call: Earl Lovett (562)439-3198.

FATHER'S DAY CARDS

Father's Day Cards have been placed on the tables at the Church doors for your use, and intention envelopes can also be found in all the pews. There will be a Novena of Masses, beginning on Father's Day. If you would like to have your intentions included in this Novena, please return the intention envelope as soon as possible. You may drop the intention envelope at the Rectory or in the collection basket.
