REST IN THE LORD

For several weeks we have listened to readings that have recounted just how arduous the work of prophets and disciples can be. In today's Gospel, the Lord Jesus listens to the reports of those he had sent out "two by two" to minister to the people. After the apostles reported what they had done, Jesus, recognizing their fatigue, says, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest awhile" (Mark 6:31). Perhaps this is what the Lord is telling his disciples in the year 2009 as well. We need to pause on our journey of discipleship and simply rest in the Lord. Sunday Mass provides many opportunities for quiet times, particularly during the periods of silence following the readings. Why not take the time today to allow the saving word of the Lord to penetrate your heart during those silent times? Ask the Lord to renew you in body, mind, and spirit for the arduous work of discipleship.

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time July 19, 2009

Behold the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will raise up a righteous shoot to David.

-Jeremiah 23:5a

SPECIAL COLLECTION

This weekend for the National Needs Combined Collection. Your generosity:

- Makes it possible to continue strengthening Catholic faith, values and education through The Catholic Communication Campaign's television, radio, and print messages
- Helps support some of the poorest dioceses in the country that depend on annual collections. Through vital evangelization programs, the Black and Indian Home Mission provides aid to some of the neediest African-American and Native American communities.
- Helps to insure the highest standards of quality Catholic education through The Catholic University of America's exceptional programs of scholarship, research, and service.
- Strengthens the Church at home, and helps to provide basic pastoral resources and services to needy ethnic communities in scattered and isolated areas through the Catholic Home Missions Appeal.

Envelopes are in the pews.

SAVE THIS DATE!

Annual Parish Picnic, Saturday, September 26th

Hosted annual by our Parish Community Group, but new people are needed this year to plan the day.

Please volunteer to help bring new ideas to this event.

Call: Deacon Carl (562)400-4099.

THANK YOU from GET ON THE BUS

Because of generous donations, 49 buses were available to take more than 1,000 children to 5 different prisons to be reunited with their parent on Mother's or Father's Day. A great 10-year anniversary celebration for this worthy organization.

RENEW—Theology on Tap 2009

If you are a young adult, married, single, or dating, between the ages of 18-39, you are invited to join us for the 8th annual summer speaker series, Theology-on-Tap! Come meet other young adults for fun, networking, and opportunities to discuss and learn about current issues of faith. Tuesdays, July 21, 28, August 4, August 11, at St. Dominic Savio Church Parish Hall, 13400 Bellflower Blvd., in Bellflower, 7-9:30pm. For information:
